Note

William B. Bates was born August 16, 1889 in Nat, Texas. He and his siblings attended local schools at Nat and in a place called Red Flat. In 1910, He attended Sam Houston Normal Institute where he earned teaching certificates. After teaching for a few years, he went on to study law at the University of Texas, graduating first in the class in 1915.

Bates served in the United States Army from 1917 to 1919 during World War I. When he returned, he opened a law practice with his brother, Jesse, and married Mary Estill Dorsey. In 1923, he was hired by Fulbright and Crooker, a law firm in Houston. The title "colonel" was bestowed upon W.B. Bates by his friend, former Governor of Texas Dan Moody.

William B. Bates had an enormous impact on the growth and development of Houston, almost from the moment he arrived. He became a member of the Houston Independent School District Board of education in 1925. The University of Houston was established under his chairmanship. William B. Bates also served the Houston Chamber of Commerce for many years. He was on the advisory board of the, then famous, Bank of the Southwest.

In 1939, William B. Bates became chairman of the Board of Trustees of the M.D. Anderson Foundation upon the death of its benefactor, Mr. Anderson. Col. Bates' foresight and leadership contributed to the creation and growth of the Texas Medical Center. W.B. Bates died on April 17, 1974.

For more information about Col. Bates, please refer to N. Don Macon's book South from Flower Mountain: A Conversation with William B. Bates (Houston : Texas Medical Center, 1975)

Series MS011-S1: Series I: Personal and Professional papers

Date: 1896-1981 (creation)

Scope and content: This series contains photographs, newsclippings, correspondence, scrapbooks, speeches, books, and certificates. The materials are grouped in the following categories: personal and family; speeches; World War I; historical organizations; University of Texas, degrees conferred, friends, and associates; First Officers Training Camp; Hoover Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of Government; Houston connections; and other personal and professional papers. The First Officers Camp Association organized an annual reunion commemorating the first officers of Camp Fuston, Leon Springs, Texas in 1917 during World War I. The Hoover Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government was created in 1953 for the purpose of carrying out the policy set forth in an act of the 83'd Congress. Under the commission, William B. Bates served on the Water Resources and Power Task Force. Folders F-1 through F-15 are exactly in the order they were found in a notebook entitled "The Hoover Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government."
