Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Lucile Baird Rogillio worked for Robert Jolly at the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Houston, TX in the early 1920s. She began working as a P.B.X. operator then moved into the front office. She was married to George William ("Bill") Rogillio.

Custodial history

Deed-1

Scope and content

The Lucile Baird papers contains 13 photographs and 4 letters related to the Baptist Memorial Hospital (later Memorial Hospital). The photographs depict hospital staff, interns, nurses, and students. Robert Jolly and Lillian Wilson Burnett Jolly appear in a few photographs, and they are the correspondents with Lucile Baird. Letters include Christmas greeting cards and Baptist Hospital stationary. Photographs and letters appear to have annotations by the creator as well as her niece, Carol Wilde.

Notes

Physical condition

Materials are in good condition.

Immediate source of acquisition

Carol Wilde, Lucile Baird's niece, mailed the photographs and letters to the archives. They arrived on September 8, 2022.

Arrangement

Photographs were assigned sequential numbers by the processing archivist. Letters and cards have accompanying envelopes.
